Mural dedication set Ohlone descendant Patrick Orozco will offer a blessing Sunday for a "Pride in our Culture" mural outside the Poet and Patriot Irish Pub on Birch Lane.

The lane will be closed between Pacific Avenue and Cedar Street from 2-7 p.m. for the mural dedication, which coincides with the 14th anniversary of the pub's opening.

The mural depicts pride not only in American Indian culture, but also Matthews' own Celtic heritage. Matthews designed the mural, and artists Tim Doyle, Ralph D'Oliveira and Rob West painted it.

The main ceremony starts at 3 p.m., and festivities will include speeches, poetry, bagpipe music, bands and refreshments.
